Information Guide

JAISALMER

Amidst the Golden Desert lies the magnificence Jaisalmer. Summarizing the allure of the desert, this flaxen grandeur submerged in golden sandstone stand with arrogance on the Trikuta Hill in the heart of the Thar Desert. Jaisalmer has attracted travellers to its wind-swept sand dunes, fort, palaces and Jain Temples since a thousand years. The Jaisalmer sand dunes have shaped the melodies of the desert tribes inhabiting the Thar since scores of generations. The tranquillity you will feel on the cold desert sand and a clear night sky will bring you closer to yourself and your loved ones.

Legend has it that Lord Krishna foretold Arjuna that a descendent of the Yadav Clan would built his kingdom atop the Trikuta Hill. His prediction was fulfilled when Rawal Jaisal, a descendent of the Yadav Clan founded new capital Jaisalmer in 1156 A.D. The life within the city enchants medieval glory, visible in its lane ragout with magnificent palace, havelis, temples and ubiquitous camels. Embellished with festivity and entertainment, the Golden City of Jaisalmer is scrupulously a mesmerizing experience for a die-hard nature lover on the sparkling sands.

In the recent times, Jaisalmer district is bestowed with Art, Architecture, Culture and traditions full of color and music . There is something to do for everyone with all kinds of tastes and likes. With adventure sports, temples, lakes, a national park, fossil museum, war memorials & museums and camping at the dunes, there is something for everyone no matter what their age or their interest are. This is also reason behind Jaisalmer's rise as a popular tourist destination in Western India.
