

SURYAGARH

Jaisalmer

EXPLORE THE UNEXPLORED

Suryagarh, Jaisalmer is your gateway to the Thar Desert.

We believe we are not just a hotel, but represent a unique way of life, carefully preserving the traditions of our past yet framing them in a modern idiom. The hotel takes the path less travelled and discovers with you, secrets of a land that have been long shrouded in myth and legend.

With great consideration to your comfort, our particular brand of hospitality is intuitive and genuine.

DINING

The Legend of Marwar

Our speciality restaurant celebrates the storied culinary heritage of Marwad, bringing to your table the legendary fare of medieval hunts, court kitchens and the zealously guarded trade secrets of Maharajas' kitchens.

Draksh

The bar beckons the thirsty traveller with its cooling white walls, speckled with gold. Unwind under amber lights and indulge in the finest spirits from around the world.

Nosh

Nosh our all day dining room is an airy, welcoming space where idleness is a virtue and indecision, a delight. Pop in any time of day or night, for Nosh is open around the clock. Linger for as long as you like; we're in no hurry and neither should you be. Happy noshing!

RECREATION

Akhara

Akhara is the traditional Indian name for a sports centre, and is a state-of-the-art gym equipped with weight training as well as cardiovascular equipment. Well appointed, it is spacious enough to allow the practice of yoga. The Rait Spa and swimming pool are adjacent to the gym.

Neel

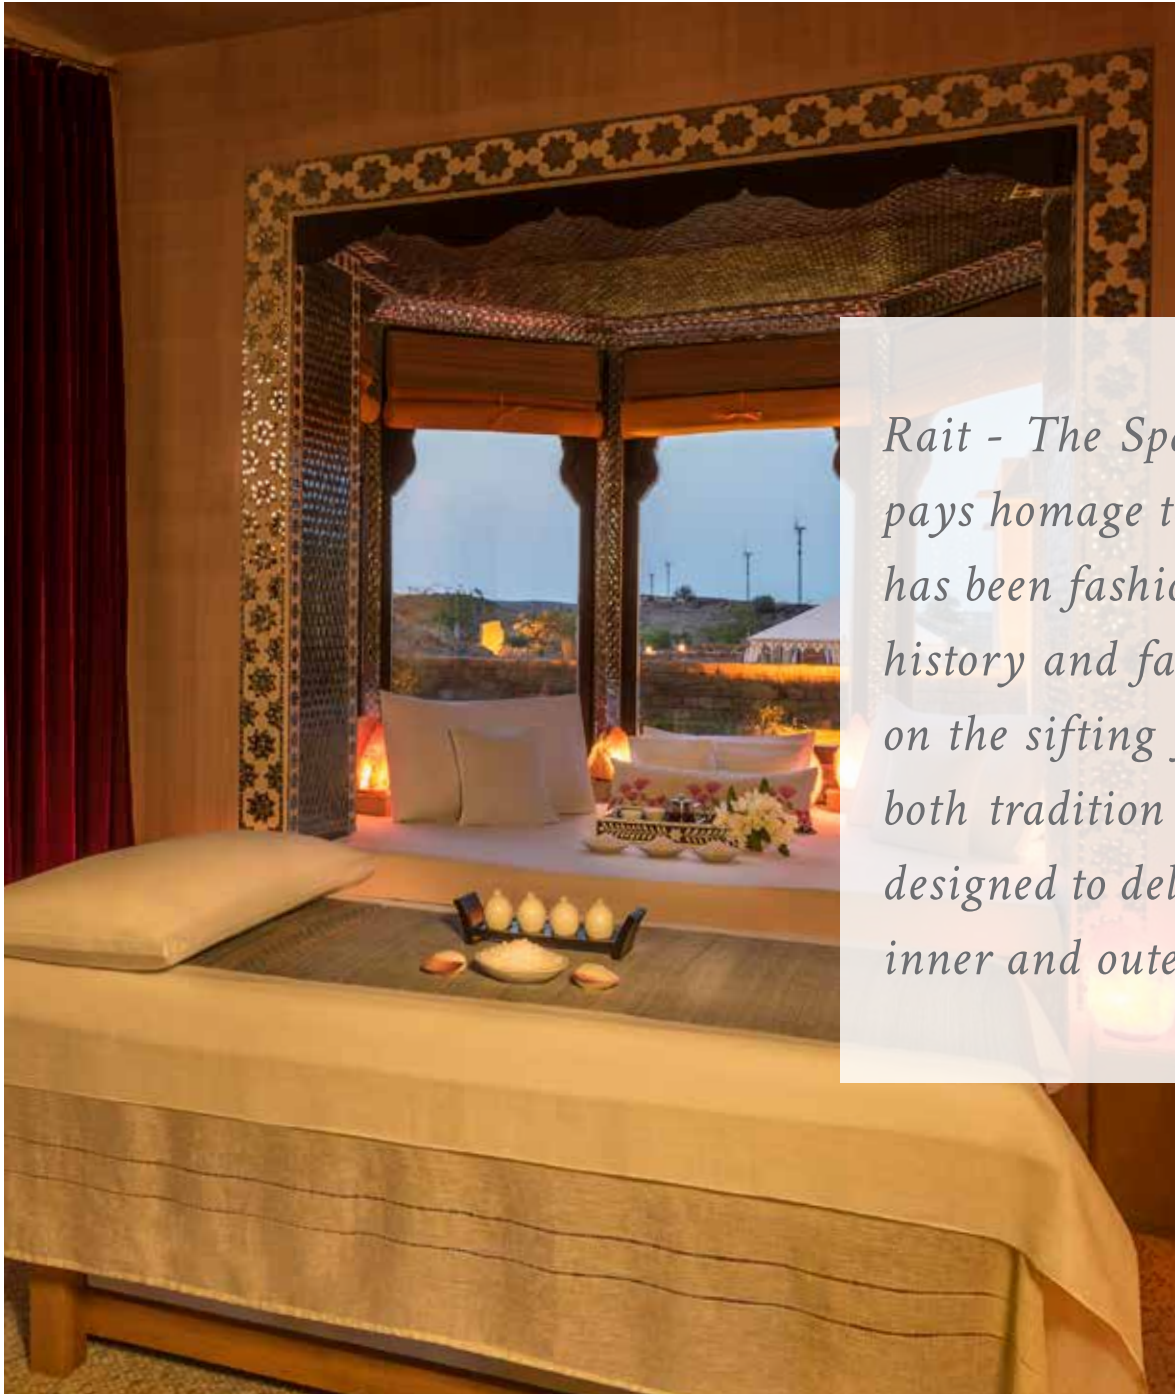

Neel— the vivid blue of the native peacocks is the design inspiration for our covered indoor pool. Built in the style of a bygone age of leisurely indulgences this pool offers quiet seclusion. Just a step beyond takes you into bright sunlight for those who wish to seek the sun.

Taash

Taash is the Cards and Billiards Room opposite the main entrance of the hotel. It entertains with many board games, a card table for four, and a well-lit billiards table.

RAIT - THE SPA

Rait - The Spa is named in reverence to the sand and pays homage to the setting, the sea of rait upon which it has been fashioned. It is conceptualised using a plume of history and fashioned on native wisdom and lore; built on the sifting yet regenerating rait, indeed the sands of both tradition and modern insight. Our treatments are designed to deliver radiance, healing and a quiet sense of inner and outer wellbeing.

By the time you check into Suryagarh, you would have already seen the hotel's unique gardens and courtyards.

Here, landscape artists have conjured up a series of sculptural gardens and courtyards reminiscent of times past. Each a sanctuary on its own, these venues allow for quiet seclusion as well as entertainment in harmony with the garden ambience that brings the outside in.

The Champa Garden

As you enter the grand walkway leading up to the hotel, the Champa Garden bright and beckoning, catches your eye with its thick spongy lawns and fragrant frangipani trees, wandering peacocks and blooming variegated shrubs. Ideal for elegant lunches and dinners it is a lively spot that always delights its many admirers.

The Spa Garden

The Spa Garden is a quiet swirl of lawn and flowering shrub, scented vines and an open-air thada where one can practice yoga or indeed dine in luxury.

The Celebration Garden

The Celebration Garden is a sprawling complex of intricate stone masonry evident in the courtyards and cultivated gardens that wrap around a traditional baradari pavilion. This versatility of space allows you to use the space as creatively as you desire.

The Bawdi

The Bawdi is styled like a traditional stepwell and utterly romantic to view. This open air space can be used for musical evenings as an amphitheatre or more privately for intimate celebrations.

The Fossil Hill

The Fossil Hill is a rocky outcrop adjacent to the hotel and ideal for sunset viewing with cool sundowners and tasty nibbles.

The Bageecha

The Bageecha is our organic kitchen garden and an extension of the Tulsi Aangan. As our hotel chef believes — the quality of food comes from the quality of its ingredients. Our kitchen garden gives us the opportunity to pick and serve herbs and vegetables fresh from the earth.

The Lake Garden

The Lake Garden is a swathe of lawn and small trees bursting out of the landscape to create a space that comes alive at night, lit by twinkling tea lights like a night-scape of stars creating magic in the desert. Ideal for dinner parties both big and small, the meticulous detailing and outstanding table is a feast for the senses.

The Central Courtyard

The stately Central Courtyard is the heart of the hotel, looking up to the open firmament and spanning the width of its structure. Jaw-droppingly spectacular with intricately carved jalis and jharokhas, pillars and stone benches, this open airy space is thoroughly versatile.

Evenings are dreamlike as live desert music, dimly lit lamps, brightly coloured flowers and endlessly twinkling stars transport you to a place you've never been. Enchanting yet so familiar.

The Mehendi Terrace

The Mehendi Terrace on the second floor is an intimate space nestled between the bastions of this fort-like structure. Ideal for smaller occasions and celebrations, the terrace looks out onto the main portico and further out on to a small temple, the original structure around which this property was fashioned.

The Verandah

The Verandah on each floor is decorated with traditional artefacts. These inviting and gentle spaces fare perfect for convivial conversations and repast as they are each located outside your rooms.

The Tulsi Aangan

The Tulsi Aangan is approached by steps leading up from the Central Courtyard. This special place comes to life at night hosting musical and dance evenings and is also suitable as a barbecue dining venue for private parties and celebrations.

ACCOMMODATION

A photograph of a traditional stone building in Jaisalmer, Thar. The building is constructed from light-colored, hand-crafted stones. It features a dark, rectangular doorway and a window with a decorative, patterned frame. In the foreground, there are tall, thin, green plants, possibly grass or reeds, which are slightly out of focus. A semi-transparent white text box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing a paragraph of text.

Forged by the sun and the sand, steeped in the great antiquity of the wild and the brawny Thar, these intimate stand-alone suites sensitively reconcile courtyards and connect spaces of traditional living with the more contemporary need for privacy and space. Every stone is hand crafted; every feature is thoughtfully intended to reflect elements of the indigenous desert culture yet all the while maintaining the integrity of elegant, state-of-the-art comfort.
