KHIMSAR FORT & DUNES

RAJASTHAN

Member ITC's hotel group

Perched on the edge of the Great Thar Desert in the heart of rural India lies this 16th century fort

You are not prepared for the beauty, the grandeur, the layout or the magnificence of this castle as you approach it. It suddenly hits you on a blind corner. Come and savour the experience....

20th generation of the royal lineage still reside in the fort. The staff today are also direct descendants of royal courtiers who have served the family for generations with passion, loyalty and sincerity

This village nestles amidst sand dunes that seem to roll into eternity. Fortunately, access is only by jeep or camel. It is truly remote, rural and romantic!

Come savour the tranquillity of the Thar desert in all its majesty!
The mini-lake that appears out of nowhere seems to be just a mirage.
Isn't it actually an oasis?

Take in a golden sunrise or a colourful sunset amidst golden sands- even as you sip a cuppa! Down a sundowner, followed by a meal around a bonfire – as million of stars blink benevolently down at you.

Each hut is spacious and as comfortable as you can possibly imagine. Local materials, mirror-work, handicrafts, rustic iron and wood furniture have been used to create the ambience.

6 kms from the fort, 18 luxuriously appointed huts with attached bathrooms, hot and cold running water, sunrise/ sunset tea and snacks, multi-cuisine and bar. Special cultural programs can be arranged on request.

Total no. of rooms – 89
Standard rooms – 13, Superior rooms – 30, Preferred rooms – 24, Suites – 4, Dhani huts – 18. Room size from 250-500 sqft approximately.
