17 REASONS TO LOVE BASEL

Basel Tourism

There are many reasons to love Basel and its people.

1 Mediterranean flair

Basel, the city on the Rhine, has a Mediterranean climate and as many as 300 days of sunshine a year. As soon as temperatures allow, the people of Basel take to the outdoors, and their joie de vivre is clear to see.

#3 Basel's residents are crazy about art.

In the now legendary Picasso year of 1967, the people of Basel voted to acquire two paintings by the artist for the city's Kunstmuseum (Museum of Fine Arts). Picasso was so moved that he gave three paintings and a study to Basel. And the city's love of art is evident everywhere: it's no coincidence that there are 40 museums here within a small area.

#4 The city with the most beautiful people in the world.

You will see them during the famous Fasnacht (Carnival), the three "most beautiful days", as the locals love to say. Being definitely one of the main highlights in the year, the Basel locals spend the remaining 362 days preparing for this event. It's not a hobby, but a passion. Look forward to all these creative masks, colourful costumes and wonderful lanterns!

#6 Swimsuits – the typical summer outfit in Basel.

The people of Basel love nothing more than swimming in the Rhine. Thanks to the «Wickelfisch», an airtight bag used to carry clothes and keep them dry, the river becomes a stream of colour in the summer months.

#8 Connoisseurs gather at Basel's restaurants.

The region is no longer an insider's tip for gourmets, with over 20 restaurants that have won GaultMillau or Michelin awards. For instance, let Peter Knogl, «Chef of the year 2015», indulge you at the Cheval Blanc, a restaurant with three Michelin stars.

#9 Dolce vita on the banks of the Rhine.

The Rhine is the city's lifeline, an area for recreation, and it inspires people, events and the city's architecture. When temperatures rise, there's a distinct southern flair: stalls set out their wares, residents put out tables and chairs, and barbecues sprout up everywhere.

10 Basel Zoo: for animal lovers and explorers.

Every child here knows it: the zoo, known by locals as the «Zolli». The oldest zoo in Switzerland is open everyday throughout the year, providing visitors with an impressive insight into flora and fauna from around the world.

166 World-class venue.

Thanks to its location on the border with France and Germany, the multinational companies established here, and the two large trade fairs, there is always a cosmopolitan air in the streets and alleys of Basel. It's therefore no wonder that the city's inhabitants are considered to be particularly open-minded.

177 Music up to your ears.

Did you know that Basel is one of only a few cities to have two orchestras of international renown? The Sinfonieorchester (symphony orchestra) and the Kammerorchester (chamber music orchestra) play regularly at the world's big concert halls, delighting classical music fans.

DISCOVER HISTORY

Basel Tourism

Take a stroll through the streets and alleys of Basel, and you will soon find yourself immersed in history. The city's venerable buildings bear witness to its long history, which stretches back over 2000 years.

The city of Basel was first mentioned in writing in the year 374, when the Roman historian Ammianus Marcellinus described how Emperor Valentinian I had set up camp in "Basilia" with his troops. At this time, the city was already several hundred years old. Its attractive location on the Rhine and the strategically important Münsterhügel (Cathedral Hill) first attracted the Celts to the bend in the Rhine in the Bronze Age, before the Romans subsequently made Basel an important trading centre. The next milestone in Basel's history is 1226, with the construction of the Mittlere Brücke (the Middle Bridge), which soon became a major hub for long-distance trade.

From the 16th century, Basel's economic prosperity was associated first with silk weaving and subsequently with dyeing. These two economic mainstays later went on to evolve into the chemical and pharmaceutical industry.

To this day, Basel functions as one of the most important logistics hubs for the economy of the country as a whole: thanks to the Schweizerische Rheinhäfen (Port of Switzerland), Basel connects Switzerland with the sea, the EuroAirport is vital for the region's import and export trade, and the SBB, Badischer Bahnhof and Basel SNCF railway stations are major European hubs for both freight and passenger trains.

TRADITION & EVENTS

Basel Tourism

Never a dull moment in Basel
Whatever time of year you visit Basel, there's always plenty going on! Unforgettable moments are guaranteed with a whole host of events both large and small - from sporting through musical to traditional customs.

Basel Carnival (Fasnacht), the largest in Switzerland, starts at 4 a.m. in the morning on the Monday after Ash Wednesday, and lasts for three days. The event is known by the locals as "die drey scheenschte Dääg", i.e. the three best days of the year. The uniqueness of Basel Carnival was recognised in 2017 when it was added to UNESCO's Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Where sport and strong emotions combine FC Basel 1893, the successful football club with its traditional red and blue strip and passionate fans, is the pride of the city and has also established an international reputation thanks to its appearances in the Champions League. The team's home stadium St. Jakob-Park was designed by none other than the architects Herzog & de Meuron.

Basel has much more to offer than just football when it comes to sport, however. Every year, the city attracts world-famous stars from the sporting scene for major international events such as the CSI Basel equestrian event and the ATP Swiss Indoors tennis tournament. Naturally, the city is particularly proud to host its local hero Roger Federer.

Appealing to young and old

Basel's main attractions are not only its sporting events, but also its traditional city fairs and markets. Around a million visitors come to experience the autumn fair (Herbstmesse), the biggest amusement fair in Switzerland. During Advent, the city is transformed by the extensive and atmospheric Christmas markets on Barfüsserplatz and Münsterplatz and the highly decorated "Adväntsgass" (Advent alley) in Rheingasse.

Carnival in Basel

Mayhem, music and merriment! The famous Basel Fasnacht Carnival begins on the Monday following Ash Wednesday. It only lasts for 3 days but the remaining 362 days of the year are busily spent making preparations. The Carnival starts with the "Morgestraich" lantern parade at 4 a.m. on Monday morning, when the city is plunged into darkness and the Fasnacht Cliques take control.

DO & SEE

Basel Tourism

Basel can look back on more than 2,000 years of history. A history that is still very much present today – surviving as it does in all the nooks and crannies of the city and forming an exciting contrast to the modern face of Basel. The heart of the city beats in Basel's well-preserved, romantic Old Town: its narrow streets and hidden squares with more than 180 fountains are just as charming as its many centuries-old buildings and eye-catching sights, such as City Hall or Basel Cathedral.

The Rhine – our life line

If you visit Basel, you won't be able to avoid the Rhine. Especially in the warm months, the banks of the river tempt you to sunbathe and relax, to rest or to swim. From the Kleinbasel Rhine side, you will have a unique panoramic view of the Grossbasel district with the Cathedral and Pfalz, of the Mittlere Brücke, the four ferries, picturesque half-timbered houses and baroque residences. You can let your eyes wander from various viewpoints, enjoy refreshment in numerous restaurants and cafes, or just sit in the sun by the river and become part of the picture.

Ferries

A trip on one of the four ferries across the Rhine is not to be missed.

Traditionally one calls the "Fährimaa" with a bell from the landingstage.

Experience how time seems to stand still during the short crossing. Without sound, driven solely by the current, the ferries will take you to the other side of the river throughout the whole year.

Kunstmuseum Basel

Starting in 2016, the Kunstmuseum Basel presents art in three different buildings: The Kunstmuseum Basel | Main Building, the Kunstmuseum Basel | New Building and the Kunstmuseum Basel | Gegenwart, which is dedicated to contemporary art. Across Dufourstrasse, facing the Main Building and connected to it on the basement level, an exhibition building designed by the renowned Basel-based architecture firm Christ & Gantenbein rises that accommodates special exhibitions as well as presentations of art from the collections.

The Kunstmuseum Basel ranks among the most renowned institutions of its kind in Europe and beyond. Its world-famous collection, the Öffentliche Kunstsammlung Basel, now encompasses around 4.000 paintings, sculptures, installations, and videos as well as 300.000 drawings and prints from seven centuries.

Museum Tinguely

Situated directly on the Rhine, the Museum Tinguely, built after plans by the Ticinese architect Mario Botta, houses the greatest collection of works by Jean Tinguely (1925–1991), one of the most innovative and important Swiss artists of the 20th century. The permanent exhibition presents a survey of his oeuvre spanning four decades. Special exhibitions show a wide range of artists and subjects including Marcel Duchamp and Kurt Schwitters who influenced Tinguely significantly, companions such as Arman, Niki de Saint Phalle, Yves Klein as well as current art trends along Tinguely's ideas.

Zoo Basel

The Zoological Gardens, known affectionately as "Zolli" by Basel's inhabitants, opened in Basel in 1874 and is home to a large number of indigenous and exotic animals.

Basel Zoo is a popular excursion destination and well worth a visit at any time of year. In the summer months the park is an ideal place to stroll in the open air, in the winter months the various animal houses guarantee up close and personal encounters with a wide variety of animals. If you wish to discover an underwater world, there are several underwater creatures to discover at the vivarium. The recently rebuilt lion enclosure, "Gamgoas", and the newly opened monkey house are two attractions worth a special mention.
