

Vigo

Photo: arousa/Shutterstock.com

Maria Madrinan/Shutterstock.com

Vigo, a port city in Spain's north-west set scenically on the bank of Ria de Vigo estuary, is the world's largest fishing port. Vigo enjoys fine seafood fresh from the Atlantic, as evident in its numerous cozy taverns. The wildly beautiful Cies Islands, along with one of the world's finest beaches, Rodas, are only a short ferry trip away.

NOTE: This Guide has been limited to 20 points of interest per section. For the full guide, please visit ArrivalGuides.com

Studioimagen73/Shutterstock.com

Jose Angel Astor Rocha/Shutterstock.com

QUIZ

*What Type of Traveller
Are You Based on Your Travel IQ?*

TAKE THE QUIZ

Top 5

Casco Vello (Old Town)

In stark contrast to the modern part of the city and its industrial port are...

Castro Fortress

Vigo's Castro (Celtic era) archaeological site grants visitors a glimpse int...

Cíes Islands

The Cíes Islands, just off the coast of Vigo, are home to one of the world's...

Samil Beach

Samil Beach (or Praia de Samil) is, perhaps, the finest stretch of sand in t...

Castro Park

Make your way uphill to Parque do Castro via Camelias Street - although the ...

THE CITY

Maria Madrinan/Shutterstock.com

Arguably the underdog of Galician cities, Vigo is surprisingly the province's most populous, and one that can - given the chance - easily entice both city breakers and beach vacationers over to its side. Vigo's indisputable winning cards are its excellent seafood (it is, after all, the world's largest fishing port) and easy access to the stunningly beautiful Cies Islands, dubbed by the Romans "the islands of the Gods". There is a limit of 2200 daily visitors to the islands for preservation purposes, so booking a spot in advance is highly recommended (especially so during the summer).

The town itself is appealing in equal measure. Alongside plenty of shopping and dining opportunities, there are a few museums worth checking out, and a good many hiking routes - the city's highest points are the O Castro, with its 2000-year-old archaeological site and panoramic public park, overlooking the Vigo estuary, and the Monte da Guía, just north along the coast. What the city may lack in architectural uniformity (its 20th-century growth happened rapidly) it more than makes up for with vibrancy of spirit, natural beauty, and a thriving nightlife.

DO & SEE

Arnau Miguel/Shutterstock.com

More often than not used as a transit base or intermediate point between destinations elsewhere on the mainland and the magnificent Cies Islands, Vigo has much more to see than you might have expected. With art museums, some of the world's finest seafood, breezy seaside promenades and an attractive old town, Vigo is worth lingering in for quite a while.

Casco Vello (Old Town)

In stark contrast to the modern part of the city and its industrial port area, the Casco Vello enchants with 19th-century architecture, narrow streets and charming squares of the old town. Casco Vello is an easy uphill hike from the port. Note that some businesses close on Sundays.

Photo: Alexleiro (image cropped)

Address: Casco Vello, Vigo

Castro Fortress

Vigo's Castro (Celtic era) archaeological site grants visitors a glimpse into what the Galician settlement of today once was (between roughly 2 BC and 3 AD). Guided tours of the Castro are organized Tuesday to Sunday, 10am-2pm & 4-6pm. Hike up the mountainside to take in the ancient city from afar.

Photo: Contando Estrelas/Flickr (image cropped)

Address: Parque do Castro, Vigo

Cíes Islands

The Cíes Islands, just off the coast of Vigo, are home to one of the world's finest beaches (Rodas Beach), and are easily accessible by sea. Only 2,200 visitors per day are allowed on the islands, so do reserve your spot in advance if traveling during high season or at the weekends.

Photo: Marcos Seijas/Shutterstock.com

Internet: www.turismodevigo.org/en/cies-islands

Samil Beach

Samil Beach (or Praia de Samil) is, perhaps, the finest stretch of sand in the area, easily accessible from downtown Vigo. Only 5km away from the city centre and with opportunities for dining and relaxation (including open-air kids' pools and beach facilities), the beach is an excellent choice for a day trip.

Photo: StockPhotoAstur/Shutterstock.com

Public Transport: Bus 15C from Porta do Sol, buses 10 or 15B from Centro Comercial A Laxe (hourly, Mon-Sat)

Castro Park

Make your way uphill to Parque do Castro via Camélias Street - although the climb is somewhat steep, the views over the Vigo estuary from here are simply unbeatable. The Castro de Vigo (dating back to the 3rd century BC) and Castello the Castro can both be visited en route.

Photo: Stefano_Valeri/Shutterstock.com

Address: Parque do Castro, Vigo

Museum of Contemporary Art

Contained inside what was once built to become a public prison, the Vigo Museum of Contemporary Art is a local cultural center that boasts a regular rotation of exhibitions, showcasing various forms of artwork (from painting to modern design). There is no permanent exhibition, however, so do check what's on when you're in town.

Photo: zhu difeng/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Príncipe 54, Vigo

Opening hours: Tue-Sat 11am-2.30pm & 5-9pm, Sun 11am-2.30pm, Mon closed

Phone: +34 986 11 39 00

Internet: www.marcovigo.com

Quiñones de León Museum

Housed inside a former castle, and with splendid park grounds in its immediate surroundings, the Quiñones de León Museum is worth the short trip from central Vigo if only for its well-maintained French garden (some say, a miniature of the one in Versailles). The museum itself contains archaeological artefacts discovered in Vigo and surroundings.

Photo: Ploetzlich (Discussion)/Wikimedia Commons (image cropped)

Address: Parque de Castrelos, Av Castrelos, Vigo

Phone: +34 986 29 50 70

Internet: www.museodevigo.org

Los Caballos Monument (The Horses)

Juan José Oliveira's 1991 creation will quite probably strike you as one unlike any other you've ever seen - the ensemble of horses ascending to the skies up a waterfall was partially inspired by the wild horses historically inhabiting the region.

Photo: Dantadd/Wikimedia Commons

Address: Plaza de Esapana, Vigo

Monte da Guía

Hike up to the top of Monte da Guía, northeast of the town, and take in the panoramic view of the city of Vigo and Ria de Vigo river, with the splendid Cies Islands looming in the background. There is a scenic little chapel at the hilltop. The hill is a half hour's walk from the Vigo Guixar station.

Photo: Jacob Lund/Shutterstock.com

Parque de Castrelos

A pleasant urban park within easy reach from downtown Vigo, with a kids' entertainment area, basketball courts, and an open-air amphitheatre (hosting world-renowned celebrity musicians a few times per year) on its grounds. Climb to the top and see what remains of the Castro.

Photo: Maria Madrinan/Shutterstock.com

Address: Av Castrelos, Vigo

Phone: +34 986 81 03 06

Castelo de San Sebastián

The crumbling ruins of what was once Vigo's strongest fortification date from 1656. Take in wonderful views of Vigo city, the bay, and Ceis islands from this unique vantage point.

Photo: Miguel Angel Otero Soliño/Wiki Commons (image cropped)

Address: Subida Barranco, 16, 36202 Vigo, PO, Spain

DINING

Andres Garcia Martin/Shutterstock.com

As one might well-expect from the world's largest fishing port, seafood reigns supreme in Vigo, and is best enjoyed as part of traditional Galician offerings such as "polbo á feira" (or "pulpo a la gallega", octopus dusted with red paprika and sprinkled with oil). There is plenty beyond fine seafood, however - "lacón con grelos", for example, is traditional pork leg with greens, and Galician "empanadas" (or meat pies).

Rua da Ostras

This street leading up to the town's port is jam-packed with restaurants and vendors offering up some of the freshest seafood imaginable. Walk up the street away from the port to find the best value deals, and do sample the fresh oysters at a stall that suits your fancy.

Photo: Lena Serditova/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua da Ostras, Vigo

Follas Novas

Ranking among the finest in Vigo, this compact restaurant is one where reservations are simply mandatory - demand on the establishment's honest, quality food and impeccable service remains high on the part of both visitors and locals. The menu is varied, and one cannot go wrong with the seafood.

Photo: shutterdandan/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Serafín Avedaño 10, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 1.15-3.45pm & 8.15-11.45pm

Phone: +34 986 22 93 06

A Curuxa

When asked for a restaurant recommendations, a local would, without hesitation, most likely single out A Curuxa. The stone-wall tavern is another safe bet when it comes to dining on Galician specialities and seafood, with stand-outs such as pulpo (octopus), empanada pies, meats, and more - all paired with native Albariño wines.

Photo: funkyfrogstock/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Cesteiros 7, Vigo

Opening hours: Wed-Mon 12-4pm & 8.30pm-12am

Phone: +34 986 43 65 26

Casa Marco

Heralded as one of the finest in Vigo and surroundings, Casa Marco is a superb restaurant showcasing local produce, meats and seafood at their absolute finest. Pricing is extremely reasonable for the quality. Reservations highly recommended, even on weeknights.

Photo: Besjunior/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua de Garcia Barbon 123, Vigo
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 1.30-4pm & 8.30pm-12am
Phone: +34 986 22 51 10
Internet: restaurantecasamarco.leiteaopedavaca1.co

Maruja Limon

One wouldn't expect to find a level of creativity and finesse this high behind the restaurant's humble facade, and yet Maruja Limon will probably deliver one of a lifetime's most memorable meals: local ingredients are sourced and handled carefully to create dishes that tend to look more like works of modern art than edibles, and yet splendidly deliver on flavour.

Photo: Jesus del Rio/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua Montero Rios 4, Vigo
Opening hours: Tue-Sat 1-4pm & 8.30pm-12am
Phone: +34 986 47 34 06
Internet: www.marujalimon.es

The Othilio Bar

With its modern take on traditional Galician flavours, The Othilio Bar elevates local cuisine to a level few have been able to match. It's hard to go wrong with any of the menu offerings, so pick whichever fine dish suits your fancy. To complete the experience, pair with a Galician Albariño wine.

Photo: Marian Weyo/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua de Luis Taboada 9, Vigo
Phone: +34 986 19 00 17

Internet: www.othilio.es

La Pepita Burger Bar

Having set out to "revolutionise the traditional burger", La Pepita appears to have accomplished the noble goal with flying colours.

Burgers served here are all exquisitely crafted, and look nothing like your typical burger joint offerings. Traditional beef, ox, lamb, Iberian pig and veggie patties available.

Photo: Prostock-studio/Shutterstock.com
Address: Calle Oporto 15, Vigo
Phone: +34 986 11 81 56
Internet: www.lapepitaburgerbar.com

Taberna A Pedra

The classic Galician tavern serves fresh, professionally cooked seafood, smack in the heart of Vigo's old town. One can't go wrong with any of the octopus dishes, just as well as other seafood offerings. Prices are very reasonable for the quality.

Photo: arousa/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua Cesteiros 2, Vigo
Opening hours: Daily 12am-3.45pm & 7.45-11.45pm
Phone: +34 986 43 86 92

CAFES

StudioPhotoDFlorez/Shutterstock.com

Whether it's traditional Spanish churros served with hot chocolate, a fine coffee brew or traditional Galician desserts that you're after, rest assured you'll find exactly what you're looking for at one of Vigo's many cafe hideaways.

Cafetería Maracaibo

A Vigo classic, this longstanding, quintessentially Spanish eatery in Praza de Compostela is a great choice for a breakfast croissant, a serving of churros (deep-fried dough pastry served with thick hot chocolate), an evening glass of wine or even lunch, all to be had in the outdoor seating area.

Photo: Lesya Dolyuk/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua Velazquez Moreno 2, Vigo
Phone: +34 986 22 55 46

Matina

Matina is an excellent choice for breakfast, and set Sunday brunches enjoy a particular popularity as well. Dishes served are reasonable healthy, with a vast selection of fresh juices and smoothies offered. Coffee and cake alone are also a good option.

Photo: Warunee Settanaranon/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua Abeleira Menendez 26, Vigo

The Coffee Land

This excellent little place serves high-quality coffee (choice is vast, so do not hesitate to ask for a recommendation), by no means leaving it at that and offering patrons a very affordable, tasty breakfast selection along with a few light snacks and sandwiches.

Photo: Uber Images/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rua Serafin Avendano 8 Bajo, Vigo
Opening hours: Wed-Mon 8am-11pm
Phone: +34 886 11 45 90

Vitruvia Cafe

The cafe's warm ambience invites for a coffee (organic) and cake break on your walk in town. Vitruvia has also earned itself a crowd of return patrons for the live jazz played here frequently during the evenings. A multitude of light meals and snacks are also on offer.

Photo: Rawpixel.com/Shutterstock.com
Address: Praza de Compostela 4, Vigo
Internet: www.vitruviacafe.com

Sésamo Bakery Shop & Lounge

Sésamo Bakery Shop & Lounge is a solid choice for a quick recharge or brunch in town. The set brunch menu includes your choice of a hot and cold beverage, a sweet course (yogurt, pastry or similar), and a selection of main (eggs cooked to your liking, miniature hamburgers, savoury pastries, and more). The adjacent bakery sells heavenly fresh goodies.

Photo: Diana Daley/Shutterstock.com

Address: Calle de Ecuador 73, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 8.30am-11pm

Phone: +34 986 11 04 05

Porto Santo

The buzzing burger place is a great find - the menu is concise, yet includes a good choice of burgers, meats and Spanish/Galician tapas.

Depending on the time of day, these go incredibly well with both beer and coffee. Prices are reasonable, most menu items being under €5.

Photo: veryulissa/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua de Garcia Barbon 45, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Thurs 7.30am-12am, Fri 7.30am-2am,

Sat 10am-2am, Sun 10am-12am

Phone: +34 626 58 51 18

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

ImYanis/Shutterstock.com

Start a night out in Vigo with tapas and local Albariño wine, a product of grapes harvested on the banks of Rías Baixas, or "lower rivers". The crisp, naturally acidic Albariño whites are praised for their sophisticated aroma and fruit undertones, and are said to go very well with seafood. To follow this with dancing, try old town's Teófilo Llorente and Real Street, check out one of the beach clubs of Samil and Beiramar, or head to the lively area of Areal. Swankier Alamdea is best fit for cocktails, while Churruca's rock bars attract the alternative crowd.

La Cervercería de Vigo

The celebrated local Estrella Galicia beer flows freely at this beer hall, run by the beer's very brewers. Come for a drink if pale lagers suit your fancy (non-pasteurised beer is served, too), and pair a glass with an offering of tapas or a full meal.

Photo: michelangelo/Shutterstock.com

Address: Praza de Compostela 17, Vigo

Opening hours: Daily 12pm-12am

Phone: +34 886 11 72 67

Cervexeria Nós

This Vigo microbrewery, is, indeed, rather compact in size, but despite its limited capacity stocks an impressive amount of local and international beers, as well as its own in-house brewed drafts. Snacks, burgers (including vegan ones), and various tapas are on offer.

Photo: qwasder1987/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Palma 3, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Thurs 6pm-12am, Fri-Sun 12pm-12am

Phone: +34 679 42 79 82

Internet: www.cervexanos.es

Van Gogh Cafe

The recently refurbished Van Gogh Cafe only closes for a handful of hours at night, luring visitors in with a cup of joe in the early morning and keeping regulars going past midnight with its impressive array of spirits (take your pick from the display behind the bar).

Photo: Jacob Lund/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua de Rosalia de Castro 28, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 7.15-2am, Sun 7.15-12am

Phone: +34 678 59 23 36

Bar Princesa

With a rather unlikely choice of name for what is, essentially, a rock bar, Princesa plays good music and lets the crowd spill out onto the Praza da Constitución, a square where a night out in Vigo starts more often than not. Good vibes are sure to be present.

Photo: Africa Studio/Shutterstock.com

Address: Praza da Constitución 5, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Thurs 9-12am, Fri 9-2am, Sat 11.30-2am

20th Century Rock

This popular rock bar's interior is a sight to behold: walls are adorned with US pop cultural memorabilia, and the space itself contains curious exhibits, such as a full yellow cab, a statue of liberty mock-up, an odd elephant head and (be weary - unreliable!) street signs.

Photo: Peter Kim/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua do Areal 18, Vigo

Opening hours: Daily 10.30am-3.30pm

Phone: +34 986 43 93 14

Buqué

Seat yourself at one of the barrels that serve the bar as tables and enjoy a tasting of the region's finest wines (international labels represented if you're interested in varieties from elsewhere). Buqué is a relaxed, quaint wine bar for a low-key evening in the old town.

Photo: Cristi Lucaci/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Palma 9, Vigo

Phone: +34 986 22 18 79

Craft

If beer is your drink of choice, do check out Craft in Rua Fisterra. The bar stocks a surprising number of draft beer varieties, with Spanish and international beers both on tap and bottled. The bar also holds courses on beer making, but these will require some knowledge of Spanish.

Photo: Syda Productions/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Fisterra 3, Vigo

Opening hours: Tue-Sun 7am-11.30pm

Phone: +34 986 12 93 67

SHOPPING

Rawpixel.com/Shutterstock.com

Basket-weaving has a long tradition in Vigo, and the craft is still kept alive by locals (Cesteiros is a street where basket weavers once lived; craftsmen of today showcase and sell their work here, too). Woodwork, ceramics, and precious metal jewellery are some of the arts still fostered and propelled in Vigo, and modern takes on ancient forms often make for very stylish designs.

Mercado da Pedra

Make your way to Mercado da Pedra in the historic town center around lunch time - the market is known for its extensive offer of seafood, and houses several eateries serving fresh oysters, which won't cost a fortune here. Some local speciality items and deli are also sold at the market; do expect a selection more limited than that of a larger city.

Photo: Curioso/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Teofilo Llorente 9, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 10am-2pm & 4.30pm-8.30pm, Sun 10am-2pm

Phone: +34 986 81 01 00

A Laxe Shopping Centre

A Laxe Shopping Centre in the Vigo marina is one of the largest commercial complexes in the area, with a multitude of stores and eateries under one roof. Some local fashion labels are represented. The shopping center is popular with cruise tourists because of its convenient waterfront location.

Photo: Alliance/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Canovas del Castillo 1, Vigo

Opening hours: Daily 10am-10pm

Phone: +34 986 44 37 88

Internet: www.alaxecentrocomercial.es

Almacenes Gonzalez

This local deli store offers a wide array of scrumptious foods typical of the region - legs of cured ham adorn the walls and hand down from a bar right above the counter, and local cheeses are showcased alongside dried fruit, nuts and wines from the region.

Photo: DUSAN ZIDAR/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua da Ronda de Don Bosco 26, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 9.30am-2pm & 5-8.30pm, Sat 9.30am-2pm, Sun closed

Phone: +34 986 22 10 17

Cesteiros Street

Cesteiros is an Old Town alley once inhabited almost exclusively by local basket weavers. The traditional baskets (used historically to store seafood and produce) are now showcased at the street's store fronts, and may be purchased as a souvenir of Vigo's widely renowned basketwork.

Photo: symbiot/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Cesteiros, Vigo

O Calvario

The shopping district of O Calvario retains some of its old-time atmosphere, with many of its streets pedestrian-only. The area is populated by multiple traditional shops and eateries, and is home to the O Calvario Market, a long-time locals' favourite for produce shopping.

Photo: windcoast/Shutterstock.com

Address: San Roque 109, Vigo

Vaidhe

Vaidhe is a design store comparable to none other in Vigo - it stocks one-of-kind, unique items crafted and/or designed in Spain. The assortment ranges from original post cards to accessories and stationery to some innovative T-shirt designs. It's a definitive must for worthy souvenirs.

Photo: A. and I. Kruk/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rua Carral 7, Vigo

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 11am-9pm, Sat 11am-2pm & 5-9pm

Phone: +34 986 11 61 26

Internet: www.vaidhe.bigcartel.com

Rua do Principe

Vigo's main commercial thoroughfare, Rua do Principe (and the street it eventually merges with, Rua Urzaiz), is lined with all manner of shops and boutiques, primarily vending international brand clothing. There are quite a few cafes and eateries here, and the Modern Art Museum in the way of attractions.

Photo: connel/Shutterstock.com

TOURIST INFORMATION

StockPhotoAstur/Shutterstock.com

Airport

The Vigo–Peinador Airport is located just 10 kilometres away from the city. It serves several airlines, and connects Vigo to multiple locations across Spain and several destinations abroad. To reach Vigo downtown, use the public bus (L9A runs every day of the week), hire a cab or rental car.

Vigo is also well-connected by land: reaching the city is easy via Spanish cities of Madrid, A Coruña, Santiago de Compostela, or from the north of Portugal.

Photo: Juan Garces

Address: Apdo. de Correos 1553, Vigo

Phone: +34 902 40 47 04

Internet: www.aena.es/en/vigo-airport/index.html

Passport/Visa

Spain can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Photo: TukTuk Design/Shutterstock.com

Best Time to Visit

Within Spain, Galicia is considered to be the "rainy region", but this is relative to the rest of the country, characterised by a very sunny, favourable climate. The best time of year to visit Vigo is between June and August, when daylight hours are long and warm temperatures allow visitors to take full advantage of the area's beaches.

Photo: VectorA/Shutterstock.com

Public Transport

Public bus service is convenient and efficient, provided by Vitrasa (a company whose name has grown to become synonymous with "bus"). Use their website or free phone app to find suitable routes. Tickets are purchased from the driver or at tobacco shops.

Photo: Pierre-Luc Auclair
Internet: rutas.vitrasa.es

Taxi

Taxis are easily hired from multiple locations across the city. To order a cab, use one of the trusted local providers: Audiotaxis +34 986 296

957

Central Radio Taxi
+34 986 470 000

Su Taxi Vigo
+34 986 132 222

Photo: ArrivalGuides
Internet: www.sutaxivigo.es

Pharmacy

There are multiple pharmacies located across the city. One round-the-clock pharmacy in Vigo's downtown is:

Photo: Gemma Garner
Address: Ronda Don Bosco 2, Vigo
Opening hours: 24/7
Phone: +34 986 43 84 08

Post

Post boxes are yellow in colour. Post offices (Correos) can be found all across Vigo. One central location is at:

Photo: Andy Fuchs
Address: Praza de Compostela 3, Vigo
Opening hours: Mon-Fri 8.30am-8.30pm, Sat 9.30am-1pm
Phone: +34 902 19 71 97

Telephone

City code +34

Photo: Jardson Almeida

Electricity

220-240 Volts

Photo: Stirling Tschan

Population
293,642

Currency
1 euro = 100 cents

Opening hours
The 2.30 to 5pm siesta is widely observed; most shops are closed on Sunday, and some do not open on Saturday evenings.

Newspapers
Faro de Vigo (Spanish)

Emergency numbers
EU Emergency: 112

Police: 091
Guardia Civil: 062

Tourist information

Vigo Tourist Office
Estación Marítima (ferry ticket office)
+34 986 430 577
Daily 10am-5pm
www.turismodevigo.org

Galician Regional Bureau
Rúa Cánovas del Castillo 22, Vigo
Mon-Fri 9.30am-2pm & 4.30-6.30pm, Sat 10am-1.30pm